In the course of their business, companies collect data necessary for the establishment of their business relations and are designed to promote and implement the services, professional interactions and fulfilment of contractual, legal and tax obligations. This data will be kept for the period necessary to fulfil the associated legal obligations, as well as while the commercial relations are maintained.

In compliance with legal provisions and for reasons related to the provision of contracted services, your data may be communicated to other public or private entities and companies of the group.

The data subject may at any time, in accordance with the law, exercise the right of access, alteration, erasure and limitation to the treatment of their data. To exercise this right you must notify the company by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt. The withdrawal of consent to the use of the data does not compromise the legal treatment carried out up to that moment.

We ensure that your data is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently and we seek to take the necessary measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of the data.

DATE OF ENTRY INTO FORCE

The current Privacy Policy is effective from on November 13, 2018, replacing all previous policies.
